MR HENDRIX PHOTOGRAPHY

PHOTOGRAPHY

Hello. My name is James and I am a born and bred Pomme crossed with a decade of Kiwi with around 5 years of Australian engraved into my DNA. I am a husband to an amazing woman called Jade and a lucky Dad to 2 little munchkins Theo & Hendrix. And a new tiny edition on the way. :) Based here in Newcastle I am a full time wedding and engagement photographer with an affinity for preserving moments in time. I specialise in capturing once-in-a-lifetime moments as naturally as possible. To me, your comfort comes first, and the photos will take care of themselves - because a genuine smile is SO much better than a forced one. Our team will work with you to make the occasion as seamless as possible.

HUNTER VALLEY VIDEO

VIDEOGRAPHY

Our intention is to capture your wedding truthfully – so we don't ask you to act or do anything differently – your wedding photographer gets to have total control and your videographer is there to capture the big moments and the moments in-between. We just love working with our couples to capture their wedding day – We are based in the Hunter Valley and are happy to travel to Newcastle, Port Stephens, the Central Coast and further. Filming weddings to create beautiful and emotional wedding videos is our passion, so please get in touch as we would love to hear all about your wedding day planning so far!

HOLYMATRIMONTY

CELEBRANT

When someone tells you – “We’re getting married by a celebrant”, what do you instantly think of? I bet it wasn’t this?!

Forget all of your preconceived ideas about marriage celebrants and get with the times! I’m young, I’m fun and I’ll expose you and your love story as much as me in my budgy smugglers. I don’t stand there and talk about me and my views on marriage because you know what? I’m not married, plus, no one gives a crap!

Instead, I talk about you and only you! It’s your day, your special moment and I get to know you deep down (not as deep as budgy smugglers do but you get the point). So if you want a celebrant who is fun and engaging and really cares about you and your story, then I’m your wingman!

The image shows the exterior of a building with a prominent gabled roof. The gable is finished with light-colored horizontal siding and has a dark green trim along the eaves. Below the gable, the main entrance features a wall of light-colored stone blocks. In the center of this wall is a set of large, black-framed glass double doors. On either side of the doors are black-framed windows. The entrance is supported by dark green columns. The foreground shows a paved walkway and some greenery. The sky is clear and blue.

WE CAN'T WAIT TO LOOK AFTER YOU.
